Report description:

The average unit price of toilet care in Israel continued to increase in 2023. Players blamed the price increases on the rising cost of raw materials, gas and electricity. In the context of the broader increase in the cost of living, this has led to heightened consumer budget consciousness and increased price sensitivity. After late price rises in 2022, leading category player Sano Bruno's Enterprises Ltd announced a price hike for many of its home care products, although there was significant p...
