Report description:

Demand for toilet care continued to subside in 2023, thanks to the normalisation of hygiene standards in the aftermath of the pandemic. The increased amount of time spent outside the home, for work or leisure purposes, also decreased the amount of time consumers devoted to cleaning, including their toilets. In addition, the cost of living crisis took its toll on retail volume sales, with ITBS, especially rim liquids, being particularly vulnerable. These products became increasingly scarce in th...
