Report description:

Convenience remained a priority for Swiss consumers in the toilet care category at the end of the review period. With hectic lifestyles and longer working hours, consumers have increasingly looked for products that minimise the amount of time and effort required to complete household tasks. At the same time, consumer hygiene consciousness is high, supported by the experiences of the COVID-19 crisis and the longer-term, more general health and wellness trend. Consumers, therefore, look for toilet...
