Report description:

There has been a significant rise in the number of Malaysians taking up coffee drinking culture, with the country ranked third highest in terms of coffee consumption in Asia Pacific. With Malaysians becoming more coffee-savvy, there are notable generational shifts in demand for different types of coffee. The older generation largely opts for local kopi (coffee), while younger generations such as Gen Z, are being influenced by the availability of a diverse range of coffee chains. The final year o...
