Report description:

2023 brought new challenges for the consumer foodservice industry and businesses were forced to deal with higher costs and interest rates. Despite the rise in costs and consumers cutting back on spending, most categories of limited-service restaurants still managed to achieve some growth during the year, with pizza chains doing particularly well. All the major pizza limited-service restaurants had positive growth in 2023, with Dominos, the largest chain in the country, and Pizza Hut leading the...
