Report description:

In 2023, current value sales in retail in Argentina experienced triple-digit growth, although this was primarily driven by very high inflation, which remained a chronic issue. Inflation reached a triple-digit rate during 2023 and the country continued to experience a severe financial and social crisis at the end of the review period. Although official unemployment rates were low, poverty levels reached historic highs, with nearly 1-in-2 Argentinian consumers estimated to be living below the pove...
