Report description:

In 2023, value sales of retail tissue in Canada recorded steady growth. The country's annual inflation rate settled around 3.1%, a much steadier adjustment than the 40-year high of 6.8% that it witnessed in 2022, according to the Consumer Price Index. While price increases on consumer products relatively stabilised compared to the whirlwind conditions of 2022, the realities of rising costs of living still impacted consumers' spending habits, especially in household tissue essentials where it con...
