Report description:

While the Chinese economy is slowly recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic, consumer confidence has not yet been restored. People are struggling in the face of a potential economic downturn and have cut down consumption of consumer goods across all sectors. The continued strong penetration of e-commerce, partly fuelled by the pandemic in the past several years, is also slowing down. The unit price of retail tissue has been increasing due to cost pressure flowing from the upstream as international...
