Report description:

In 2023, retail tissue in Colombia recorded positive, double-digit retail value growth, bolstered by rising inflation and ongoing price hikes. However, retail volume growth for toilet paper remained low, despite players reducing the meters and weight of toilet paper rolls in an attempt to avoid passing higher price rises onto consumers. Amidst budget constraints, households have changed their purchase habits, with affordable packs of two units being the best seller and counts of six rolls falling...
