Report description:

Self-service cafeterias was one of the strongest performers among the main foodservice categories in Poland in terms of growth in transactions and current value sales in 2023. Like limited-service restaurants, it weathered the cost-of-living crisis better than most areas of the market thanks to comparatively cheap menus. In particular, their affordable positioning ensured these types of establishments remained very popular with lower-income workers, students and elderly adults. They were also we...
