Report description:

In 2023, street stalls/kiosks in Ireland was the best performing consumer foodservice channel in terms of value sales growth. This was mainly due to it being one of the most negatively impacted during the pandemic. Therefore, sales and transactions have notably improved since the easing of restrictions in Ireland, although they remained below pre-pandemic levels in 2023. The re-emergence of food markets in cities and the return of food festivals (generating an important share of sales for street...
