Report description:

AFH tissue and hygiene in Bulgaria continued to steadily recover from the harsh impact caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. Restrictions in hotels and restaurants, which is the biggest AFH channel, hindered sales in 2020 as many establishments were closed. However, despite the category's double-digit value growth, it was unable to reach pre-pandemic levels. Sales recovery has been stifled by inflation and the higher prices of food and drinks in the horeca channel.
