Report description:

In 2023, home product specialists in Romania showcased positive growth driven by home improvement and gardening stores. Consumers in Romania have showcased a rising interest in DIY and gardening, which began during home seclusion and the outbreak of COVID-19. Having forged an interest, in 2023, Romanians have continued to invest in their homes, although at a lower rate than during the pandemic. This is due to the lifting of restrictions redirecting disposable incomes to travel and leisure. Beyond...
