Report description:

Volume sales of hot drinks returned to recording positive growth in Latin America in 2023, following the slight decline seen a year earlier. In value terms, with costs rising against a backdrop of high inflation, growth was stronger. Coffee continues to lead value sales in hot drinks in Latin America, although other plant-based hot drinks, which includes the traditionally popular yerba mate product in a number of countries, continues to have a major presence in the region.
