Report description:

Environmental and animal welfare care, as well as health concerns, are providing a boost to sales of plant-based, meat free, and vegan cooking ingredients and meals. Organic-focused consumers also often look for foods to enable them to substitute animal proteins, while almost half of all plant-based product launches in Denmark since 2013 have also been organic. This strong consumer interest in plant-based and meat-free options in nutrition in Denmark is also being supported by the government's g...
