Report description:

The experiences of the COVID-19 crisis led consumers to feel that products such as hot drinks should not only satisfy thirst and need, but also provide elements to boost the functioning of their immune systems and help with their health. This has been particularly apparent in products that primarily target children, such as cocoa. Parents have not only looked to reduce their children's sugar consumption, but also to get the benefit of extra vitamins. Brands like Caotonic quickly capitalised on t...
