Report description:

Volume falls in nappies/diapers/pants in France in 2023 were relatively gentle, with the category's essential products leaving little room for substantial purchasing declines. The recorded decrease was mainly a result of France's falling birth rate, and a continued pattern that began in 2020 with only a small reprieve in 2022. Demographic influences can be seen in sales by age groups, with volume shares shifting to products geared towards older children who now represent a larger share of the us...
