Report description:

Polishes in Morocco posted positive growth in current value terms in 2023, albeit from a lower base. Such products still have a niche status in the country and are largely considered to be expensive and unnecessary. As such, they tended to be purchased mainly by upper-income groups, with low- to middle-income households opting for cheaper, multi-purpose alternatives. Moreover, with the exception of shoe polish, availability is largely limited to modern grocery retailers, with limited opportunities...
