Report description:

When the COVID-19 pandemic hit in Australia in 2020, packaging unit volume sales of sauces, dips and condiments recorded a clear spike in demand due to lockdowns and other restrictions, such as foodservice closures, which forced consumers to cook more meals at home. This was followed by further growth in 2021, with restrictions still in place for parts of this year.

Euromonitor International's Sauces, Dips and Condiments Packaging in Australia report offers insight into key trends and developments driving packaging across the category. The report also examines trends and prospect for various pack types and closures: metal packaging, rigid plastic, glass, liquid cartons, paper-based containers; flexible packaging.

Product coverage: Cooking Ingredients and Condiments, Dips, Other Sauces and Condiments, Pickled Products, Sauces.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
