Report description:

In the wake of the pandemic, a number of factors have helped maintain an ongoing interest in home cooking after the boost to this trend driven by the COVID-19 restrictions. Hybrid work modes have become widespread in India, seeing consumers continuing to spend more time at home and therefore also continuing to cook more meals at home. Furthermore, inflationary pressures have made foodservice expensive for many, making home cooking more attractive to cash-strapped consumers. Dry recipe sauces (ie...
