Report description:

In 2023, small local grocers in Colombia continued to lose ground as they have become less attractive as a format for price-sensitive consumers. 2023 has been an economically challenging year and, according to DANE figures, retail sales declined by 6.6%, which has tested the resilience and adaptability of neighbourhood stores in the midst of a challenging economic environment. According to the National Trade Federation of Colombia (FENALCO) Logbook October 2023, a lack of demand, high interest r...
