Report description:

In 2023, tissue and hygiene in the Dominican Republic continued to record positive retail value growth. However, value growth was driven by rising retail prices, although price lifts were slower in 2023 than the previous year. The international prices of raw materials such as cellulose, paper pulp and plastics stabilised, as did transportation costs, lifting cost pressures in the production and distribution chains. Despite this, ongoing inflations saw a higher cost of living, resulting in consum...
