Report description:

Post-pandemic, consumers in Switzerland began to spend much more time outside of the home for work and leisure activities, boosting demand for on-the-go products sold through vending machines. In 2023, this trend continued, but growth was more moderate after the previous years' surge. With more local consumers returning to schools, universities, and offices, food and drink, particularly hot drinks, drove most vending sales in 2023. Soft drinks benefited from an increase in travel and the use of...
