Report description:

In 2023, demand for wipes in Algeria remained healthy, especially as prices were kept at a reasonable level despite soaring inflation in the country due to the ongoing economic downturn. The category also benefited from not yet being mature and fully saturated, as well as the rising focus on hygiene and convenience. Sales remained limited to personal wipes in 2023 as Algerian consumers do not regard home care wipes and floor cleaning systems as essential products. Baby wipes were the leading pro...
