Report description:

In 2023, wipes in the Dominican Republic recorded positive retail value growth, benefiting from products that have versatile and multifunctional uses. For example, consumers increasingly use baby wipes not only to clean babies' skin but for other purposes, such as adult facial cleansing and surface cleaning, and among higher-income demographics, it is also used as a substitute for toilet paper. As such, it has been noted that Dominicans who do not have children purchase baby wipes, increasingly...
