Report description:

In 2023, menstrual care in Bulgaria witnessed steady retail volume growth despite the continued unit price increases in the category. Price inflation was most notable at the beginning of the year when inflation was still at its peak from 2022. Despite the ongoing decline in the female population of menstrual age, sales of menstrual care are still performing well in volume terms. Consumers are spending more time outside the home and living increasingly active lifestyles, with an increased need fo...
