Report description:

In 2023, the menstrual care landscape in Greece was impacted by rising production costs and supply chain pressures, which urged companies to increase retail prices. This led to overall positive, double-digit retail value growth. To continue attracting consumers, players focused on offering promotions and implementing regular discounts, leading retail volume sales to remain positive. As such, trading down to private labels was not heavily noted. Instead, women preferred to buy their favoured brand...
