Report description:

Menstrual care in Ireland registered solid volume growth in 2023. Together with the necessity status of these products, the continued expansion of the female population aged 12-54 ensured overall demand remained stable. There has been fairly consistent demand across the categories within menstrual care in 2023, with only standard towels without wings registering a small decline in volume terms. Slim/thin/ultra-thin towels with wings performed particularly well as consumers increasingly opt for m...
