Report description:

Serbian women are generally quite conservative with regards to menstrual care. Sanitary towels remain the most popular product, whilst menstrual cups and reusable pads are available but remain a niche. Moreover, some consumers consider re-washable pads to be unhygienic. In 2023, sanitary towels were the most advertised menstrual care product, followed by pantyliners. Tampons take a small share of sales but are enjoying fast growth from a small base. Leading players, such as Libresse and Always,...
