Report description:

Continuing the long-standing trend, polishes saw a retail volume decline in Hong Kong in 2023, although growth was seen in current value terms. Volume demand for shoe polish continued to decline in Hong Kong in 2023 due to decreasing sales of leather shoes. This was driven in particular by younger consumers, who typically favour sneakers, which do not need polishing, rather than formal leather footwear. However, the volume decline was at a much lower level in 2023 than seen for many years, with...
