Report description:

Demand for wipes in Serbia has been supported by elevated hygiene standards since the COVID-19 pandemic. Though wipes registered double-digit current value growth in 2023, constant value sales were flat. Prices have been rising due to the soaring costs of raw materials, logistics and operations. Consequently, consumers prefer to buy larger wipes that offer a lower unit cost per sheet. Although there are pressures on budgets, busier lifestyles and greater levels of travel have simulated volume sa...
