Report description:

Analgesics is set to maintain steady current value growth in Brazil in 2023, and will remain the largest category within OTC, with a 40% share of value sales. The consumption of analgesics is mainly related to general pain, fever, and the relief of hangover symptoms caused by excessive consumption of alcoholic beverages. However, as a mature category, its pace of growth is expected to be lower than most other consumer health categories in 2023. The minimal volume growth expected highlights that...
