Report description:

Dietary supplements is expected to see solid current value growth in Brazil in 2023, maintaining the trend seen for many years. During the years of the pandemic, consumers predominantly focused on products that strengthened their immune system. While the consumption objective has shifted in 2023, one enduring aspect from the pandemic years remains a sustained surge in consumer interest and trust in dietary supplements. According to data from Euromonitor International's Voice of the Consumer: Hea...
