Report description:

The decline in the nappies/diapers/pants category in Ukraine in 2023 can be attributed to the dual impact of a declining birth rate and children leaving the country due to the ongoing war. The diminishing number of births directly contributed to reduced demand for baby care products, including nappies/diapers and pants. Simultaneously, the departure of children, sometimes accompanied by families seeking safety, further exacerbated the decline in the market. The war in Ukraine not only affects th...
