Report description:

Retail adult incontinence in Uruguay was subject to an increase in small-scale smuggling, but to a much lesser extent than other tissue and hygiene categories. Typically, the most smuggled products are those sold in a relatively small and easy-to-carry format. In terms of adult incontinence, pads and incontinence towels align more with these attributes than adult incontinence pants. Due to its bigger size, packs of adult incontinence pants occupy a lot of space in cars, thus enabling shoppers to...
