Report description:

High unit prices continued in tissue and hygiene in Uzbekistan in 2023, driven by ongoing geopolitical issues. Disruptions had been easing in the post-pandemic landscape, however, the onset of the Russia-Ukraine war created a new set of challenges. Notably, both global and local brands were forced to re-consider their production locations, logistics, and sourcing of raw materials, whilst also facing cost increases caused by inflationary pressures. Therefore, all these compounded issues continue...
