Report description:

In 2022, appliances and electronics specialists in the UK was the only non-grocery retail channel to experience a decline in sales. Due to the cost-of-living crisis and the squeeze on discretionary budgets, many consumers were forced to be conservative in their spending and purchases of large appliances and electronics were among the first items to be reduced. This continued to be the case in 2023, with the channel recording a more pronounced decline than the previous year. Although this effect...
