Report description:

Away-from-home (AFH) tissue and hygiene maintained dynamic current value growth in Japan in 2023. Inbound tourism was one of the major economic boosters in Japan until COVID-19 hit the country from early 2020. It was a disaster for most industries and consumers, but the damage to the tourism industry was amongst the greatest. Just like other countries, Japan closed its borders so that new variants of the virus would not enter the country, which would have made medical resource management even to...
