Report description:

Inflationary pressures, notably in food, drove value growth in convenience retailers in 2023. Here we note the cost of everyday essentials, such as butter, milk, flour, and eggs. While this supports value sales due to the higher prices, retailers in the channel have also been struggling with their own higher costs, coupled with the price-sensitivity of consumers due to the macroeconomic landscape. That said, convenience retailers continue to attract consumers, due to their very nature of offerin...
