Report description:

Menstrual care recorded deep declines in volume sales in 2023 in Nigeria, with consumer demand falling due to inflationary conditions and reduced purchasing power. Although menstrual care products are usually regarded as essential, many local consumers are unable to afford to buy them regularly, and penetration rates remain fairly low in the country. 2023's complex economic climate further hindered growth as hikes in fuel prices and a weakened local currency forced many Nigerians to switch to al...
