Report description:

In 2023, both retail and away-from-home tissue and hygiene in Japan maintained growth in current value terms. Demographics, the fading away of COVID-19, and inflation were key factors affecting the industry in 2023. Baby-related products such as nappies/diapers/pants and baby wipes continued to struggle to achieve growth in retail current value terms, along with the accelerating decrease in the number of newborn babies. On the other hand, the elderly population continued to increase, which drove...
