Report description:

In 2023, bath and shower in Argentina registered an overall decline in retail volume sales, with the triple-digit growth in retail value driven by price increases. With the threat of COVID-19 significantly reduced, the demand for hand sanitisers decreased in retail volume terms in 2023, with the product exhibiting the poorest performance within the bath and shower category. These results have led to the discontinuation of hand sanitiser production, with companies include direct sellers, Natura,...
