Report description:

In 2023, all depilatories products in Argentina registered positive growth in retail value and volume terms. The peak of tourism in 2022 and 2023 positively impacted growth while hotter weather boosted sales. Sales for depilatories is traditionally concentrated during the warmer months of October to March. However, during the review period, sales have begun to increase during the traditionally colder months, with temperatures being higher than usual. This factor has partnered with increased soci...
