Report description:

Depilatories witnessed gains in value growth in 2023, primarily fuelled by price increases as consumers shifted towards self-care and at-home treatments in lieu of spa and salon visits. This trend was spurred by increases in the cost of living, including inflation and interest rate rises, prompting consumers to seek more economical alternatives. Healthy growth was observed in categories such as hair removers/bleaches and razors and blades, while pre-shave products experienced a decline as consum...
