Report description:

Following marginal decreases in retail current value sales in 2021 and 2022, direct selling in Sweden faced another difficult year in 2023. While retail current value sales rose slightly, this was due to high inflationary pressure on prices. At constant 2023 prices, retail value sales of direct selling decreased strongly at the end of the review period. Undoubtedly, direct selling, like other retail channels, suffered from high economic uncertainty among consumers. In addition, direct selling is...
