Report description:

Mass beauty and personal care maintained current value growth in Japan in 2023. However, while most categories in mass beauty and personal care in Japan increased in value terms as a result of the end of the pandemic, mass bath and shower continued to decline. Liquid soap and hand sanitisers, in particular, which grew significantly during the pandemic due to infection control, saw continued falls in sales since COVID-19 moved to category 5 designation, and due to more time spent outside of the h...
