Report description:

The global care management solutions market was valued at $9,314.25 million in 2021, and is projected to reach $25,712.73 million by 2031, registering a CAGR of 10.7% from 2022 to 2031.

Care management refers to any efforts focused on improving patient care by assisting patients and caregivers in effectively managing their medical problems. Care management solutions are internet based integrated healthcare solutions, which provide quality care to patients through software and services at minimum risk and in a cost-effective manner. Patient education, population management, medication management, and health care planning are some examples of management of care.

The growth of global care management solutions market is majorly driven by alarming increase in prevalence of chronic diseases such as cancer, diabetes, and cardiovascular diseases; surge in geriatric population, rise in awareness about low-cost care management solutions; and upsurge in demand for care management solutions among healthcare providers.

However, loss of confidentiality and patient's data breaches hinder the growth of the market. In addition, scarcity of skilled professionals to efficiently use care management solutions is the factor, which is expected to negatively impact the growth of the market.

The care management solutions market is segmented into component, mode of delivery, application, end user, and region. By component, the market is categorized into software and services. On the basis of mode of delivery, the market is segregated into on-premise and cloud-based. By application, the market is classified into disease management, case management, and others. On the basis of end user, the market is fragmented into healthcare providers (hospitals & physician group, ambulatory care centers, and others), healthcare payers, and others. Region wise, the market is analyzed across North America (the U.S., Canada, and Mexico), Europe (Germany, France, the UK, Italy, Spain, and rest of Europe), Asia-Pacific (Japan, China, Australia, India, South
