Report description:

WealthTech solutions assist clients in achieving their financial objectives such as stock modeling, cash flows, complicated tax planning, strategic estate planning, and legacy planning. These solutions offer various benefits such as improved portfolio management, asset liquidity, cost transparency, and increase in customer service. In addition, WealthTech solutions provide various advantages such as more efficient portfolio management, improved liquidity of assets, cost transparency, and enhanced customer service.

Rise in adoption of automation solutions across industries fuels growth of the WealthTech solution market. In addition, surge in demand for financial analytics services and growing use of technologies in WealthTech management is driving the growth of the market. Therefore, these are some of the factors propel growth of the WealthTech solution market. However, the market growth is hampered by high cost of WealthTech solutions and the emerged privacy and security concerns due to the extensive flow of customer data. On the contrary, rise in demand for predictive analytics technology fuels growth of the WealthTech solution market.

The WealthTech solution market is segmented on the basis of component, deployment mode, enterprise size, end user, and region. By component, it is segmented into solution and service. By deployment mode, it is bifurcated into on-premise and cloud. By enterprise size, it is segregated into large enterprises and small & medium-sized enterprises. On the basis of end user, it is segmented into banks, wealth management firms, and others. By region, it is analyzed across North America, Europe, Asia-Pacific, and LAMEA.

The report analyzes the profiles of key players operating in the WealthTech solution market such as 3rd eyes Analytics, Aixigo AG, BlackRock, Inc., BME inntech, InvestCloud, Inc., InvestSuite, Synechron, Valuefy, Wealthfront Corporation., and WealthTechs Inc.
