Report description:

Despite the low birth rate in South Korea, current value growth was maintained in baby and child-specific products in 2023. Parents are becoming increasingly savvy in terms of purchasing products that suit their children, regardless of whether they are premium or not. Products are often purchased separately for the face, body, and bottom, while seasonal product purchases have also become prevalent; for example, soothing products are purchased in the summer, while moisturising products are favour...
