Report description:

Like most areas of the beauty and personal care market, deodorants saw growth in total volume and current value sales dip in 2023 as persistent inflationary pressures continued to fuel price hikes and erode purchasing power in Algeria. However, the category's exposure to the cost-of-living crisis was mitigated by the fact that these products are relatively inexpensive and widely seen as a basic necessity due to the country's hot climate. Favourable demographic trends, rising urbanisation and inc...
